

Irish Churches recognised the biblical imperative to practice hospitality, inclusiveness, advocacy, and the importance of promoting intercultural dialogue when they endorsed the *Irish Churches Affirmations on Migration, Diversity and Interculturalism* in 2009. Individual churches are to report back in 2010.

Hard copies can be obtained from the EMBRACE office, the Inter-Church Centre, or the Parish Integration Project.

*What the Bible says About the Stranger: Biblical Perspectives on Racism, Migration, Asylum and Cross-Community Issues* Second Revised and Expanded Edition, Kieran J. O'Mahony OSA, 2009

There are some Biblical Reflections in *Inter-Cultural Insights: A series of Christian Reflections on Racism, Hospitality and Identity from the Island of Ireland*. All-Ireland Churches' Consultative Meeting on Racism/ Irish Inter-Church Meeting, 2006

The Dublin-based Parish Integration Project *Unity and Diversity in our Churches*, 2008, compiled by Adrian Cristea, along with Alan Martin, Robert Cochran and Tony Walsh, contains some Bible studies.

*Churches Together in Britain and Ireland Racial Justice Resources* include theological and practical considerations about asylum and immigration.