

This contains Bible studies, which prompt us to examine our interaction with others in the light of scripture and to reflect on our own identity and attitudes. In addition there are discussion starters and group activities which provide opportunities for creative engagement with the issues. The 'what we can do' section encourages us to think about how we can make our own communities warmer places of welcome.

The resource, prepared as a CD-ROM in 2007, is no longer available however you can access the content below. Please bear in mind that some of the material will be out of date as legislation and provision have changed since the resource was compiled.
